In order to ensure compliance with the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) and to avoid discrimination based on national origin under Title VI of the Civil Rights Act, the meeting notice should invite people with disabilities or who have difficulty with the English language and who plan to attend the meeting to contact the town in advance of the meeting if they need a reasonable accommodation in order to participate, such as an interpreter or a person skilled in American Sign Language. The town will then request the information needed to determine exactly what kind of accommodation is necessary and reasonable for a particular individual and a particular meeting location.
